

Adrienne Vichill

Adrienne Vichill, a principal of The Alpha Group, has been an employee benefits professional since 1987. She is a veteran Benefit Consultant who works closely with businesses to develop creative approaches to the design and maintenance of health and welfare benefit packages. Adrienne also consults on various compliance requirements including ERISA and the Affordable Care Act.

Adrienne began her employee benefits career with a regional managed care organization. She is a member of the Northeast Ohio Health Underwriters Association, the Ohio Health Underwriters Association, the International Foundation of Employee Benefit Specialists, and the National Association of Professional Insurance Agents.

Adrienne is a graduate of Ohio University, and remains active with the alumni association along with several social service organizations throughout northeast Ohio.

Employee Benefits · Business & Personal Insurance · Retirement Plan Services · HR Consulting Services